A nice field of nine will square off in Saturday's $1 million Florida Derby (G1) at Gulfstream Park and all but Promises Fulfilled, who garnered 50 points upsetting the Fountain of Youth (G2), need points to secure a berth in a 20-horse Kentucky Derby field.

The 1 1/8-mile Florida Derby will reward points on 100-40-20-10 scale to the top four finishers.

Strike Power yielded the early lead last time to Promises Fulfilled, who proceeded to establish a moderate pace, but look for a change in tactics Saturday. Drawn in the rail post, Strike Power figures to be sent from the gate by Luis Saez and he's got the speed to dictate terms after displaying tremendous early zip recording a pair of sharp gate-to-wire sprint wins in his first two starts. The Speightstown colt answered the two-turn question finishing second, 2 1/4-length clear of champion 2yo Good Magic, in the Fountain of Youth and trainer Mark Hennig has raved about his charge's development in the four-week interim since his last start. We'll tab a wire-to-wire win from the improving colt.

Catholic Boy came up a little short when opening 2018 with a second in the Sam F. Davis (G3) but still registered a respectable 101 BRIS Speed rating (career-best) after rallying into a slow pace. With only four published works beforehand, the son of More Than Ready had every reason to be a little short last time and we expect him to be more fit for Jonathan Thomas, who shipped his pupil to Gulfstream early for a visually impressive half-mile drill earlier this week. If any other speed takes on our top choice, Catholic Boy figures to receive an ideal set-up for his late run and we'll look for a strong finish from the Grade 2-winning juvenile.

Audible has been rated as the 9-5 morning line favorite off a smashing 5 1/2-length win in the Holy Bull (G2) and Todd Pletcher will seek to extend his record with a fifth Florida Derby tally, winning last year's edition with subsequent Kentucky Derby winner Always Dreaming. The Into Mischief colt will have to overcome post 8 and doesn't figure to receive the same plum trip from last time when no quality speed was present. And the extra sixteenth of a mile is at least a minor concern with his speed-oriented pedigree (by Into Mischief and out of a Gilded Time mare). We still have plenty of respect for the talented performer but will try to beat Audible for the win at short odds.

Promises Fulfilled made it look easy last time but we're expecting a different result with different circumstances Saturday.
