A field of eight will test 1 ¼ miles on the Del Mar main surface in Saturday's $1 million Pacific Classic (G1). ACCELERATE was third in this event last season but won't be facing the likes of Collected or Arrogate today. Sadler trainee has evolved into one of the top handicap horses in the country in his five-year-old campaign with dominant tallies in the Gold Cup (G1) and Santa Anita H. (G1). Joel Rosario inherits the mount atop the son of Lookin At Lucky. He will be formidable with anything like his best.

ROMAN ROSSO is the wildcard in the field. Argentine and Uruguayan Group 1 hero will make a U. S. debut today and Baffert picks an ambitious spot for him off the layoff. Chestnut colt rides in with a trio of fine tallies in succession and has not missed a morning drill since June 1. Top pilot Flavien Prat will be in the controls atop the intriguing colt.

James Cassidy's PRIME ATTRACTION was a neck third in the grassy Eddie Read (G2) most recently in what could be an ideal prep for today. Dark bay son of Unbridled's Song is not consistent, but he is quite capable and also is perfect from two runs on this strip. Five-year-old earned a whopping 112 BRIS Sped figure when dominating the 2017 Native Diver (G3) here in the fall. Kent Desormeaux will be in the saddle.
