#1 NEXT SHARES has failed to win in eight straight races and finished last of 12 in the race in 2020 for Baltas. The 8-year-old gelding has returned to solid form as of late, however, with a pair of third-place results in the graded stakes ranks in the Golden State. Son of Archarcharch could grab a minor share with a lifetime best under Van Dyke.

#2 BREAKING THE RULES comes in following a third-place showing in the local Fort Lauderdale (G2) for McGaughey. War Front 6-year-old has won or placed in each of his trio of local assignments, and I expect him to move forward in his first try at the distance. John Velazquez will guide the tactical Kentucky-bred.

#3 STORM THE COURT seeks his initial turf triumph on Saturday. Champion son of Court Vision was last seen finishing a game second in the Mathis Brothers Mile (G2) at Santa Anita, and he will be an early presence in his first run on the Gulfstream sod. Julien Leparoux has the assignment.

#4 NORTH DAKOTA is the second McGaughey pupil in the field and comes in off of a nice victory in the Red Smith (G3) in the Empire State. The steadily improving son of Medaglia d'Oro has never faced this kind, but he is training in fine fashion and will have Jose Ortiz in the saddle. The 5-year-old will be rallying from well off the early tempo.

#5 COLONEL LIAM has run a trio of fine races since moving to the green for Pletcher, which includes a stylish stakes tally on the course last time out. Lightly raced 4-year-old has a lot of room for improvement, and the $1.2 million yearling purchase is the one to beat with an expected move forward on Saturday. Irad Ortiz retains the mount atop the ultra-talented gray.

#6 LARGENT is the second of three from the Pletcher shedrow with a solid chance in the deep cast. Recent Fort Lauderdale (G2) winner has been first or second in all nine lifetime performances to date, and the son of Into Mischief sports a superb 5-4-1-0 mark at Gulfstream Park overall. The bay gelding can run from on or well off the pace with equal effectiveness, as well. Paco Lopez will be in the stirrups.

#7 AQUAPHOBIA earned his best win to date when bagging the United Nations (G1) at Monmouth Park in July. The son of Giant's Causeway is winless in three outings since, and he will need a big step forward to upset this field under the guidance of Joe Bravo.

#8 ANOTHERTWISTAFATE was an open-length winner of the San Gabriel (G2) last time out for Miller, and a move forward will give him every chance in the stretch on Saturday. The 5-year-old responded to the addition of blinkers most recently and has the early presence to be in the hunt from the opening bell in his local bow. Joel Rosario will pilot the win threat.

#9 CROSS BORDER has done his best work running marathon distances to this point for Maker. The Grade 2 winner had a nice prep for this endeavor at Fair Grounds most recently, but he will need a career best to take this field down from off the pace beneath Gaffalione.

#10 PIXELATE defeated lesser in the Woodchopper S. in his 2020 finale and takes a big class rise in this spot. Godolphin homebred has been quite consistent in his career on the lawn, though, and the City Zip colt could get a share late with something close to his best outing. Edgard Zayas takes the reins.

#11 SAY THE WORD has strung together four excellent races in succession and rates a big chance in a superb form cycle for conditioner Phil d'Amato. Northern Dancer (G1) hero was a late-running third in the Hollywood Turf Cup (G2) last time out, and he has trained in good fashion in the interim, as well. Flavien Prat will be atop the son of More Than Ready.

#12 SOCIAL PARANOIA shows a trio of tallies from four local tries to date, led by a visually impressive triumph in the Appleton (G3) here in March. Street Boss 5-year-old draws widest of all in the field, and I fear that he is at his best when contesting races at a mile, as well. Luis Saez inherits the mount atop the talented dark bay.

#1 SLEEPY EYES TODD prepped for this event with a game tally in the Mr. Prospector (G3) on the oval for Silva. Grade 2 winner showed his versatility in his seven-furlong score most recently, and his best showing puts him in the hunt late if he receives a sensible trip from the rail.

#2 COASTAL DEFENSE has been consistently good since June and comes in off of a solid try when fourth in the Clark (G1) at Churchill Downs. Curlin 5-year-old has tactical speed combined with a fine turn of foot, and he enters off of a bullet morning drill on the surface most recently, as well. Corey Lanerie has the assignment.

#3 INDEPENDENCE HALL makes his third appearance following the long layoff for McCarthy. Grade 3 victor is lightly raced with a lot of room for improvement, and he is training like a colt sitting on a big effort under Flavien Prat.

#4 KNICKS GO has reached new heights since joining the barn of Brad Cox, winning three races in succession led by a triumph in the Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile (G1) last time out. Two-time Grade 1 star comes in fresh with fine morning drills and could be the one to catch turning for home beneath regular pilot Rosario.

#5 JESUS' TEAM is a sneaky upset contender who sports a 6-3-1-1 mark on the oval. The former claimer had a positive prep run for this when bagging a stakes race on the strip in December, and the son of Tapiture has the right running style to get the jump on the deep closers, as well. Irad picking up the mount is a major positive, too.

#6 KISS TODAY GOODBYE continues to improve for conditioner Eric Kruljac. West Coast import rallied for an upset victory in the San Antonio (G2) in his latest endeavor, and the late runner will receive a swift and contested pace to rally into on Saturday. Mike Smith will guide the exotics contender.

#7 TAX looked the part when leading at every call in the recent Harlan's Holiday (G3) on the course for Gargan. Grade 2 hero is more than capable on his best day, and it might be telling that Saez lands here, when he had other options in the field. The gelding will be stalking the pace from the break.

#8 HARPERS FIRST RIDE takes a shot at the top level after proving to be a dominant presence on the Maryland circuit as of late. Paynter gelding has been first or second in eight of his last nine performances, and the dark bay could be a factor at a price if he thrives on the Gulfstream surface in his local debut.

#9 LAST JUDGEMENT led throughout in a powerful Sunshine Classic romp in his second off the claim for Maker. Congrats 5-year-old is a three-time local winner, and he is yet another who could contend late if he runs to his most recent showing. Paco Lopez picks up what could be a live mount.

#10 CODE OF HONOR is the top pick for Shug McGaughey. The consistently very good Grade 1 victor was a smart runner-up in the Clark (G1) in his latest venture, and the chestnut seems poised for a huge performance in his 5-year-old debut. Son of Noble Mission, who is a Grade 2 winner on the oval, will have Tyler Gaffalione in the stirrups.

#11 MR FREEZE gives conditioner Dale Romans a second contender in the cast. Kentucky-bred son of To Honor and Serve was second in the race in 2020 and has run two of his best races to date at Gulfstream Park. The pacey sort will be forwardly placed from the onset beneath John Velazquez.

#12 MATH WIZARD is winless since notching the 2019 Pennsylvania Derby (G1) and draws widest of all for Joseph. Son of Algorithms is a dual winner on the course, but he will need a career-best effort to upset this field from the outside post. Edgard Zayas will be in the silks.
